“Anti-Human Trafficking and What the Health Care Provider Needs to Know”

Synopsis of Lecture: There will be a review of human trafficking. Attendees will learn the scope of international and domestic trafficking, why this training is important and go over the law. They will learn to identify victims of trafficking and learn their role as a provider in managing identified patients. Attendees will become familiar with the resources available to help those identified. 2 GEN CE Hours

Presented by:

Mr. Daniel Liaou

Daniel Liaou is an MS2 at Baylor College of Medicine. He is currently a Co-Committee Chair for the Anti-Human Trafficking Committee of Doctors for Change, as well as Co-President of the BCM Chapter of Doctors for Change. Daniel began engaging in anti-human trafficking work as an MS1, writing a policy brief on proposals facilitating survivors' departures from their trafficking situations. Since joining Doctors for Change, he has coordinated activities for the Anti-Human Trafficking Committee and delivered lectures on identifying and managing potential victims of human trafficking in the clinical setting.
